Final night of Bay Festival announced

The Final night of The Manx Telecom Bay Festival was announced today exclusively on Manx Radio. The Saturday night will feature music icons Spandau Ballet who are currently playing sell out concerts after re-forming and releasing a new album.

Supporting Spandau will be Calvin Harris, and Indy band "The Feeling" making a sensational line up. All three nights have now been confirmed with mega boy band and multi award winners JLS supported by Diversity appearing on the Friday and an 80's night with Rick Astley, Belinda Carlisle, Boy George, The Real Thing, Curiosity Killed the Cat, Kim Wilde and The Cutting Crew on the Sunday.

Manx Radio's Business Director John Marsom commented "this is a tremendous opportunity for the station to be the exclusive radio partner. The event will see 30,000 people in the three days and we are honoured to have been chosen to be a key partner."

The event will be staged over 3 nights 18th – 20th June 2010. For more information The Manx Telecom Bay Festival go to manxradio.com and follow the link..

Manx Radio was the first commercial radio station to start broadcasting in the British Isles in 1964. In 2009 it celebrates its 45th anniversary of serving the Isle of Man as both a commercial and Public Service Broadcaster.
